Special Guest: William Kellibrew of the William Kellibrew Foundation

The 11th Annual Clothesline Concert will be held on Saturday, March 20th at the Nauset Regional High School Auditorium in N. Eastham, beginning at 7:30. It will feature nationally touring singer/songwriter Greg Greenway, Jazz recording artist Bruce Abbott, and percussionist Lisa Brown and the Nauset World Music Ensemble. Special guest this year is singer/activist William Kellibrew, whose foundation, The William Kellibrew Foundation, has allowed him to crusade against domestic violence from Capital Hill to Oprah. This fund raiser supports the Clothesline Project in their efforts to raise awareness of violence against women and children both locally and nationally. Tickets may be purchased at the door or at the Hot Chocolate Sparrow in Orleans.

Suggested donation is $15 for adults and $10 for students and seniors.
